CAPT. GODDARD'S

The estate of Capt. J. Norton Goddard, organizer of the Civic Club, who died May 25 last in Latchfield, Conn., and whose will has just been filed, amounts to more than $500,000. Most of the estate is left to the widow.

Capt. Goddard's chief asset was his interest in the firm of J. W. Goddard & Son, which is estimated at $50,002. He also held 200 shares of the Copper Queen Consolidated Mining Company; estimated to be worth $20,000. His total personal estate was worth $124,817, but the net personal is $400,652. This is reduced largely by the commissions of three executors, amounting to $13,315, and administration expenses placed at the control of the control The estate of Capt. J. Norton God-
